REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. This action is in response to the remarks and arguments filed on 8/04/2010.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 27-52 are allowed over the prior art

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The arguments as filed by the applicant overcome the prior art of record which fails to teach either singularly or in proper combination the limitations as recited within the independent claims of the application.

Riley et al (US Patent Publication No. 2003/0125046 A1), Phelts et al (US Patent No. 2002/0101912 A1) and Hoshino et al (Hoshino) (US Patent No. 6,081,230 A) in combination disclose a mobile terminal measuring radio-electric signals to derive measurements which are affected by measurement errors and subjecting the measurements to state-based statistical filtering. The state-based statistical filtering comprising selecting at least part of a set of reference elements as terrestrial reference elements, providing a first state representative of at least one location coordinate, providing a second state representative of measurement errors and using the first state and the second state in the state-based statistical filtering to determine at least one location coordinate or the mobile terminal.

However, as recited in the arguments, although the references disclose non-zero mean measurement errors, the non-zero mean errors disclosed are not represented by a state provided in a state-based statistical filter and are not calculated by a state-based statistical filter as recited in the independent claims.

Therefore, the prior art of record either singularly or in combination fails to teach the above claimed limitations for claims 27, 34-35, 43-44 and 50-52 and is therefore the reason for allowance. Claims 28-33 are dependent on claim 27; claims, 36-42 are dependent on claim 35; and claims 45-49 are dependent on claim 44; therefore, the dependent claims are allowed under the same reasons set forth above.

Conclusion

3. The prior art considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure is made of record and listed on form PTO-892.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
